

GO FISH

These 10 seafood markets make eating hook-to-fork a breeze — no matter where you are in the state.

EASTERN

- ATLANTIC BEACH SEAFOOD & FRESH MARKET Atlantic Beach
Whether you're eating in or taking home a steamer pot for a Low Country boil, the owners keep things as fresh as possible.
*415 Atlantic Beach Causeway
(252) 247-2430
facebook.com/atlanticbeachseafood*
- QUALITY SEAFOOD MARKET Elizabeth City
This family-owned market and restaurant within sight of the Pasquotank River sells local fish and shellfish alongside a full menu of homestyle dinners.
*309 East Ehringhaus Street
(252) 335-7648, qualityseafoodco.com*
- REYNOLDS SEAFOOD COMPANY Kinston
Since opening its doors in 1960, this distinctive market near the Neuse River has become a destination for a wide variety of seafood.
*336 North Heritage Street
(252) 523-3474
facebook.com/reynoldsseafood*
- AUSTIN FISH COMPANY Nags Head
This Outer Banks retailer and restaurant offers a variety of options like fried lunch favorites on the porch and wild-caught fish for your dinner.
*3711 South Croatan Highway
(252) 441-7412, austinseafoodco.com*
- CLYDE PHILLIPS SEAFOOD MARKET Swansboro
This decades-old mainstay, located where the White Oak River splits, has sent many a snapper, flounder, pound of shrimp, and bushel of oysters out the door.
*104 East Corbett Avenue
(910) 326-4468
facebook.com/clydephillipsseafoodmarket*

Download a PDF of this checklist and others at ourstate.com/checklists.

WESTERN

- MOTHER OCEAN SEAFOOD MARKET Asheville
Owner Sam Kosik used to drive across the state once a week to pick up just-caught fish from the coast. Today, Mother Ocean supplies loyal customers with the freshest seafood every day.
*640 Merrimon Avenue
(828) 231-5607, momavl.com*
- HIGH COUNTRY SEAFOOD West Jefferson
What started out as a small fish stand on the side of a mountain road is now a favorite market and restaurant in the west. Enjoy a classic shrimp po' boy at a picnic table.
*215 Beaver Creek School Road
(336) 977-1827, highcountryseafoodco.net*

CENTRAL

- THE SHRIMP CONNECTION High Point
Piedmont-based seafood connoisseurs know that this market sells the freshest fish and shellfish they can get without catching it themselves.
Open Fridays at 2301 Sandy Ridge Road; visit theshrimpconnection.com for more hours and locations.
- LOCALS SEAFOOD Raleigh
This landlocked crew drives to the coast three to four times a week to buy super-fresh seafood straight from the source. Be sure to pick up a peck of oysters.
*1209 Farmers Market Drive
(919) 675-2722, localsseafood.com*
- FORSYTH SEAFOOD MARKET & CAFÉ Winston-Salem
At this market and café founded by Beaufort natives — who know a thing about seafood — just pick a fish, and the chef will cook it up for you right then and there.
*108 North Martin Luther King Jr. Drive
(336) 748-0793, forsythseafood.com*

